A network of colleagues sharing ideas on recruitment and retention are yours for the meeting.

NJAHR is a state chapter of the National Association of Healthcare Recruiters, and the only state organization dedicated exclusively to your professional interests: the recruitment, marketing, interviewing, advertising, and retention of healthcare personnel.

Providing a forum for networking, support, and resources, we meet bimonthly at the New Jersey Hospital Association Center, 760 Alexander Road, Princeton, New Jersey. Right now, over 80 healthcare facilities and 100 individuals participate. And that number is growing every day.

Educational programs. Strategic solutions. Best practices and more. NJAHR offers you the chance to meet the multidimensional challenges that lie ahead—and a great group of people, too.
